

Safety Alert

SA. No. 2022-02

Goulburn River hazard – downstream of Killingworth River Reserve boat ramp

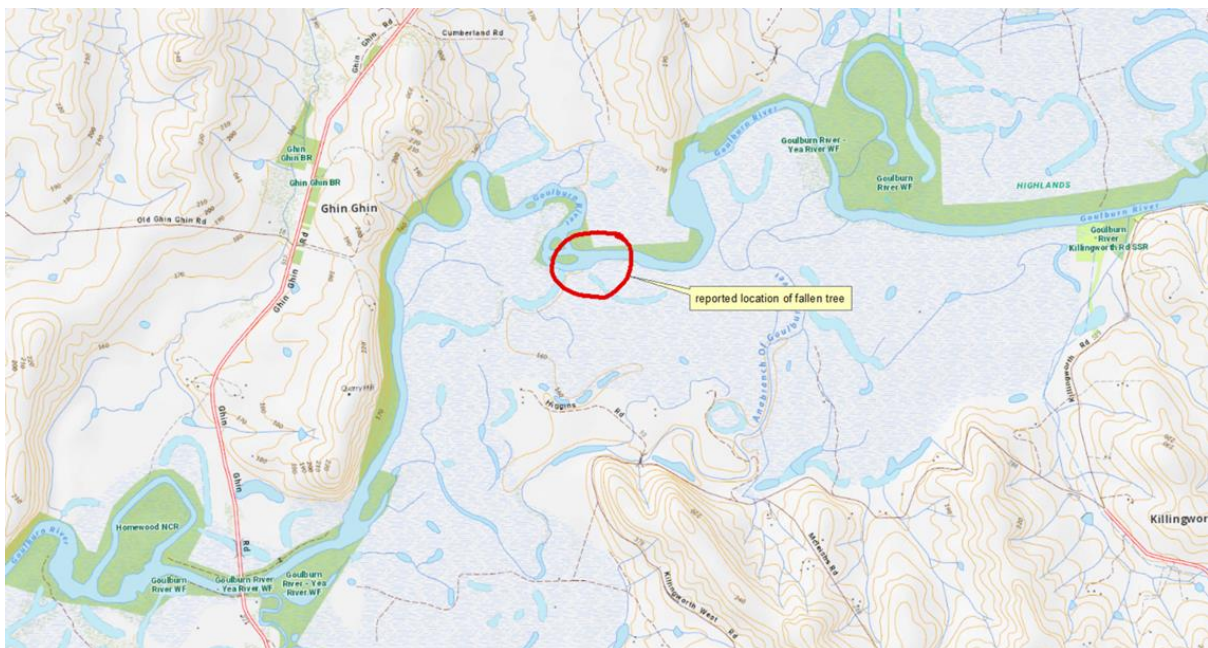

Safety alerts are published by Transport Safety Victoria (TSV) under section 197 of the Transport Integration Act 2010 (Vic) to promote the safe operation of transport services. Safety alerts are intended to provide information only and must be read in connection with obligations under relevant legislation.

Subject

Warning to waterway users of a large fallen tree across the Goulburn River between Killingworth River Reserve and Ghin Ghin Road Bridge that is blocking passage.

Issue

- Estimated location is approximately 4.25 kms downstream of the Killingworth River Reserve boat ramp.
- Be aware that passage may be hazardous or blocked.
- The location of the obstruction is not easily accessed via road.
- A five (5) knot speed restriction applies to the waters of Goulburn River downstream of Eildon Pondage.
- Paddlers and boaters are reminded to check the river conditions and be aware of fast flowing rivers. Goulburn Broken Rainfall and River Conditions \(bom.gov.au\)
- Let someone know before you go, wear a lifejacket, and carry a distress beacon.
